ELIGIBLE BACHELOR

by ADYA

Dammit !! I’ve to marry her now, My son wants to see his mother at any cost on his daughters marriage.

Br. ADUR NO MORE !

RENUKA NAGAR: Mr.P.K.Adur, yes the same lean guy with a slight hunch and with looks of Harsha Bhogale has at last decided to resign from his bachelor hood and marry the same girl with whom he was engaged during last financial and academic year. The marriage is being scheduled at K.S.Sharmahall on 28th Nov of this year. And the unfortunate girl who is marrying this so-called eligible bachelor is from Nekar nagar, who has very poor academic record when compared to Mr.Adur. But what really counts is her rural look with urban soul and willingness to marry Adur in spite of knowing his reputation as sincere bachelor in the market. The news has shocked dozens of gals around the Twin City who had thought of possessing this soul. Mixed opinions are received when the news hit the city and some people are considering this as an historic decision. The marriage will be considered as the Millenium Marriage and hence the invitees can feel proud for having witnessed such mega marriage in their lifetime. By the way the name of the victim who is getting married to this flirt is Prerana Kulkarni.

...Kaustya-the Daddy

KARWAR: Kaustubh Saunshikar, the Indian born American model and largest machine seller (escort- jcb- gravedigger) on the earth has become father on 3rd Nov. He was expecting it since last nine months. Kaustubh who is yet to complete his first anniversary has shown his keen interest in burdening India with more population and more over the report says that he has also advised Mr. Adur to follow his path. Meanwhile kaustubh’s in laws are considered as the youngest grand parents in the history of Karwar District.

STAR-Official gutka of the marriage

PREM SHINDHE SUES ADUR

GREEN GARDEN: Prem.M.Shindhe,who studied with Adur from VIII to B.Sc is now very much pissed off by Adur, as Adur didn’t consult his “half pant mate cum old room mate” before taking the decision on marriage. Shindhe who is well known for taking tension on small things is now really hot like Khoday’s XXX Rum. P.M.Shindhe has considered this as an insult and decided to take this matter of not consulting him for marriage to Bachelors Court to Sue him for at least One Box of Manickchand and a case of Real Challenge whisky followed by dinner at Savaji Khanavali. Mean while the Judge of Bachelors court Mr.Jamadar is likely to rule out his petition, as he knows Prem’s reputation as a bachelor.

FINANCE BY

...Centurion Bank...

CLUB ROAD: Centurion Bank, which has very recently opened its account in Hubli has taken the responsibility of financing this mega marriage. Meanwhile other Bankers at Hubli have warned Centurion to be very careful and not to exceed O.D. more than 5 crores per week as Adur’s reputation is very poor with almost all-Indian Banks. But the Centurion Bank is taking only 7.15 % of flat interest for the O.D.which makes Mr.Adur flat once he calculates interms of cut-interest. Meanwhile Bank is also giving the “note counting machine” to Mr.Adur on hire basis for three days in order to count the cash received as presentation.

YGWA CALLS FOR BUNDH! ...

LADIES HOSTEL: Young Graduate Women’sAssociation of Hubli has lodged a complaint against Mr. Adur for marrying an undergraduate girl. According to the Section 46, clause 5 , all graduates are supposed to marry graduate girls only in order to balance the literacy in the society. The latest report of the organisation says that the most of illiterate people in the society are illiterate because their mothers are illiterate. Hence to oppose this decision of Mr.Adur, the president of this Association Miss.Drakshi has called for Hubli Bundh on 25th of Nov. “It was least expected from a person like prashant, especially after completing MBA degree from SIMS”. says Drakshi who is yet to complete her B.A.Degree.

MY DELICATE DARLING

STRAIGH FROM THE HEART: Adur has remarkable sense of humour, which he used mostly to criticize people and flay the demerits in very systematic order, which is really an art. Now Adur has opportunity to analyze, criticize and comment on his own would-be.And Adur has agreed that he’ll impartially do the analysis and here is the brief of the same.

“ Every body was under the impression that it is very difficult to get a girl for me, they thought it’s very difficult to find such a lean girl as I am. Even some time I wondered myself whether I’ll be able to get girl of such a lightweight. People have many criteria to select the girl but I had only one criteria and that was her WEIGHT which I have to bear thru’ out my life. And thanks to god for finding such lightweight girl i.e.42.064 Kgs exactly and I’m proud to say that I’m 2.457 Kgs more than her weight. There is slight difference in the height, but I think it matters only when we roam hand in hand in the Broadway. And as far as the looks are concerned she is typical village girl and very orthodox. Her education and maturity prevents her to share my work and knowledge. But she is still the best, as she can’t poke her nose in everything I do (which other’s wives are pioneer in doing). As far as her delicacy – you can see the marks imparted by me on her face even after a day and durability -I am under impression that she can definitely bear a cricket team and still remain as coach and manager”.

We hope this analysis made by Adur may be very honest but the paper is of the opinion that The girl is too good for Adur and can definitely lead /guide him throughout the life.

World Marriage Day –CRY !

NEWYORK: November 28,may not be having any historical event in the history so far but now onwards CRY (child relief and you) has decided to observe this day as World Marriage Day. And Indian government has decided to observe the day as “SHAHID DIVAS” as it is loosing such incredible creative Bachelor

P.VAKKUND WEL-COMES

Vakkund’s Tea- official Tea

AJIT JAIN JOINS F.F.F

AKKIHONDA: The President of Newly Married Men Association(NMMA)Mr.Prakash Vakkund has wel-comed the decision of Adur. He says one can’t remain flirting thru’out life and has to commit one single mistake and get married. He recalled his bachelor hood saying that those were the golden moments of his life and which can’t be replaced even by marrying 10 wives. He asked Adur not to regret and assured that he and his wife can sort out any kind of problems which are likely to appear once he gets married. And he also advised Adur to change his telephone no in order avoid the threatening calls which are likely to come from ex-girl friends. Mean while the president has dismissed Ajit Jain from the Association as he is likely to become father in the coming Nov. He says the association in for the newly married men not for the fathers and would be fathers. With this particular development Ajit Jain is left with no other option than joining FFF(Federation of Fresh Fathers). The Father of this Federation Mr.Hugar has already invited Mr.Jain to join his organisation and strengthen the same. He says the membership of the firm is valid till our son becomes father, hence Ajit is safe for another 20 years at least. Ajit says it is not fair kicking him out of NMMA even before he has become father.

From desk to dust bin...

EDITORIAL BY ADUR

“Other people’s babies / That’s my life / Father to dozens / and nobody’s husband.”

Yes exactly these were the lines, which I kept on murmuring once I declared my self as an adult. But I forgot that I’m in India, a country of culture and tradition. And hence my bachelor hood didn’t go so well as anticipated but I have no regrets now. I have satisfaction of completing successful Bachelorship and now I have to step into the next phase of life, which is being described as dreadful by plenty, wonderful by few and inevitable by remaining. Things will not be the same once I get married, and especially for a person like me who has “Sheer Enjoyment” as goal of life. I agree that marriage is not a word, it’s definitely a Sentence!...Sentenced to Among all the paths that lead to women’s love, pity is the straightest and that’s what counts for the hearty people like me. Once woman has given you heart, you can never get rid of the rest of her, but in my case it is reverse. She had given me a rest of her and now I can’t get rid of her heart.

“She’s not fair to outward view / as many maidens be;/ her loveliness I never knew / until she smiled on me.”

One Wide smile of her has trapped me. And will make me now cry for the entire life but tears worth preserving for lifetime.

And to conclude with readers “ though the marriage has more demerits than merits, still its part of our life. All weddings are similar, but every marriage is different. Death comes to everyone, but one mourns alone.

B.GROOMS DRESS in KIDS KEMP

B’LORE: Reports from B’lore say that Mr. Adur could not get trouser of his size (as usual) and was sent to Kids section for the same in order to have 26 inch trouser. Even in case of shirt, he could hardly find the shirts of his size (38 cms) and had to settle for 39 cm.(size of the shoulder). Now Adur is left with no other option than stitching the pants at Mark Tailor’s shop that has started using good quality of thread and better zip. Meanwhile he has purchased two khaki shorts on roadside at Brigade Road, which may be used, during his first honeymoon along with Jockey undergarments. Lee has given him pair of socks free on this event where as Zodiac has agreed to wipe his face occasionally with its handkerchief. Meanwhile he has also purchased imported cosmetics (deo, perfume etc...) set worth 2000 RS. that will be helpful to the people who attend the marriage without taking bath.
