From desk to dust bin

..... P.K.ADUR

Marriage is not a word, It's a sentence!

To marry is to halve your rights and double your duties.One loses his independence after marriage and becomes more or less slave of his beloved wife. Life becomes burden and Wife becomes inevitable companion. And we being Indian's can't change our wife so easily as our western brothers do. We are bound to a single female thru' out the life. The very concept of marriage is bullshit ! One should be allowed to lead his life independently and let him have as many friends as he wants, why get marry and commit yourself . We can enjoy the life to its fullest extent only without the commitments. And moreover a husband is considered as successful husband if he can earn more money than what his wife can spend. So in that way your economical life will be miserable and entire life we earn to please our wife and later on for the byproduct which is produced during the sheer enjoyment period. And then whole life is entirely screwed up. I would like to have a OLE mate rather than soul mate. And if you think a female can be a soul mate then you are stupid. If you really worship a women they'll forgive you almost everything ,ALMOST EVERYTHING. Remember no female can be a good partner/companion however matured she is. Marrying is almost all committing suicide. One who really understands the concept of life would never like to marry in his lifetime. All weddings are similar, but every marriage is different. Death comes to everyone, but one mourns alone. If men knew how woman passes time when they are alone, men would never marry. And faithful women are alike , they think only their fidelity,never of their husband. Though the marriage makes man and wife one flesh,it leaves them still two fools. What is marriage but prostitution to one man instead of many. Most marriages don't add two people together, they subtract one from the other. There are four stages to a marriage. First, there's the affair, then the marriage, then the children and finally the fourth stage, without which you cannot know a woman, the divorce. According to me man does not exist for the sake of woman, but woman exists for the sake of man and hence there shall be this difference that a man shall love his wife, but never be subject to her, but the wife shall honour and fear the husband. When a man gets married it is like jumping into a hole in the ice in the middle of winter: you do it once and you remember it the rest of your days.

Now my dear Bachelor friends, think twice before you marry and throw this paper into a dustbin....Because my ideas are not for the society in which we are living right now. I'm not trying to disappoint neither Mr.Vakkund nor you, but remember every word written by me has some significance.So take care,You are almost all dead if you get married.
